

Getting Involved in the Charter - Working Together for Better Outcomes

Thursday 30th September 2010

What? This one day conference for tenant participation workers and support staff will enable delegates to find out more about the proposed Social Housing Charter and how to support tenants and colleagues to get involved in its development. The local outcomes will be negotiated locally between landlords and tenants so plans will be needed to engage with tenants, to get people involved and work together to produce your particular outcomes.

A member of the Scottish Government's Charter team will inform delegates about the progress that is being made in the Charter's development and the plans for further consultation during 2011.

Discussion will also focus on the government's proposals contained in its new consultation paper "Housing: Fresh Thinking, New Ideas".

When? Thursday 30th September 2010. Registration will commence at 9.30 a.m. The conference will start at 10 a.m. and finish at 3.30 p.m.

Where? The Golden Lion Hotel, 8-10 King Street, Stirling, FK8 1BD.
